

artist: Sean Palm
title: Fundamentals
label: Railyard, NYC
cat: RyR024
release date: November 11th, 2009
digital: Ingrooves, Beatport
vinyl: Dead Format Records, Springfield, USA

a1: Fundamentals (Original Mix)
b1: Modern Heads Remix
b2: Giorgio Gigli Remix

In-house producer and Railyard founder Sean Palm returns hot off the heels of his critically acclaimed debut full-length album Days On End. With Fundamentals Sean digs deep into his melodic background to create a hypnotic techno composition not afraid to be defined as real deal trance.

On Fundamentals we welcome the past, present and future visions of Italy's top hypnotists Giorgio Gigli and Modern Heads from the Dozzy Records family. Over the last few years this unique crew of Italian studio professionals has broken open Pandora's box of techno taboos and recaptured ownership of the long-lost techno style known as trance. By consistently blending modern techno rhythms with proper modulation, these classically educated analog junkies offer up two separate slices of modern techno psychedelia that stretch deep into the spacious world of dancefloor hypnosis.

Modern Heads (Dino Sabitini & Gianluca Miloni) have appeared on such labels as Prologue, Elettronica Romana, Factor City, Meadowlark, Radiance, Mental Groove and Dozzy Records.

Giorgio Gigli's most recent remix work with Railyard family member Donato Dozzy appeared on Wagon Repair and followed previous appearances on such labels as Dumb Unit, Elettronica Romana, Prologue, Mental Groove and Dozzy Records.